COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

We thought this week about what it means to trust in God's protection. We also learnt about the story of Abraham and how he learnt to trust in God.

Alien Eggs

There has been great excitement in Dragons this week! On Thursday morning, the children discovered some alien eggs in the outdoor area.

The shutters had been down all night and were still down when the children arrived in school. When the adults rolled back the shutters and allowed the children to venture outside, this unusual discovery was made! Where have they come from?

What will they turn into?
How did the children know they were alien eggs?

Good luck EYFS and Y2s!

Mrs Watson is working really hard, along with Mrs W and Mrs B, in Dragons to secure judgements against 'Early Learning Goals' which is what the EYFS children are assessed against. It is only from the beginning of May that these final judgements are able to be made so the adults are busy collecting lots of evidence to support their assessments. Mrs Watson will also be carrying out the Key Stage 1 SAT tests over the next couple of weeks for our Y2 children, in addition to gathering lots of evidence to support her overall teacher assessment judgements.

GOOD LUCK!

Breakfast!

With all the hard work that is going on over the next few weeks, please ensure your child has had a healthy breakfast before coming to school.

It's hard to concentrate if your tummy is rumbling!

Y1, Y3, Y4 and Y5s

These children have not been left out! Over the next few weeks, these year groups will also take part in a series of assessments which will help to form our teacher judgement as to how each child is performing against their year group's expectations. We look at the areas children have achieved well in, as well as those areas that they found more tricky, and use this information to inform our planning for future weeks. After the half term break, Y1 children will take part in their statutory phonics screening assessment.

Parents/Carers' Consultation Evening

We will be holding our parents/carers' consultation
evening on Thursday 7th June.
