Handwriters of the week

Congratulations James and Thomas for your beautiful handwriting!

We only achieved 94.81% attendance this week.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

We are continuing with our theme of 'Forgiveness'. We learnt about the story of Joseph who became a ruler in Egypt. He had the choice to forgive his brothers (who came to him for help after they had thrown him into a pit and then sold him to a group of traders) or put them in jail. Despite what had happened in the past, Joseph chose to do the right thing and forgive. How easy would you have found this to forgive the brothers?

Mathletics

I have registered the school for the Mathletics summer challenge which runs from Monday 25th June to Sunday 1st July 2018. Children just need to play on Mathletics as much as possible during this time period and gain as many points as possible.

The 3 schools with the highest number of points win 3 fabulous prizes. They work out the winners using a formula that means small schools are not at a disadvantage as they are unable to gain as many points as larger schools. I know that we can smash this children! Let's see if everyone can get on board and do their bit for the competition.

Pupil of the Week Certificates

Our Pupils of the Week are:

Charlie and Savannah

30 Days Wild

Annabel treated us to an assembly on Monday! She has been so inspired by our 30 Days Wild that when she took her dog for a walk with her parents at the weekend, she took lots of photos of all the different, interesting things she found along her walk. The photos were stunning and we enjoyed listening to all the different creatures and plants she had found along her walk. She said that watching Springwatch and doing this challenge had made her much more observant when out and about!

Thanks Annabel for your super engagement!

Charlie's Success

Charlie played in an under 6 gala at Wetherby at the weekend and received a lovely medal. His team played really well against some very good teams. His football club then had their presentation day and Charlie received a trophy for all his hard work during the year. This is great news Charlie, you must be feeling very proud!

Reading Eggspress

This week I had the privilege of presenting the first silver certificate for Reading Eggspress – well done Kieran, I'm so proud that you have achieved this. You have been very dedicated to Reading Eggspress since it was launched!

Writer of the week

Congratulations Karolina for your writing this week

Mathlete of the Week

Olivia

Well done for reaching 2463 points

Arrangements for next week

Mrs Watson will not be in school Wed, Thurs or Fri next week because she is attending a three day first aid course. In order to ensure we keep everyone safe, it is necessary that staff update their training. Mrs Watson will be one of the school's named first aiders. All staff have emergency first aid but some have more in depth training. Thank you Mrs Watson for taking on this role. In order to minimise disruption, Mrs Stanley will teach Dragons on Wed, Thurs and Fri and Mr Adams will be teaching Eagles on these days. Mrs Watson will be planning the Learning for Mrs Stanley to deliver.

We will also take the opportunity to work together as a whole school family for part of the afternoon where we will do some circle time/PSHCE, continue with our Springwatch science theme and do some extra sports practice. Please can all children have their PE kits in school for the whole of next week as any activity we do will be weather dependent.

Family Lunch

Thank you to everyone who came to our family lunch on Wednesday. It is lovely that you were able to join the school family and share a meal together. A huge thank you to Mrs Jack and Mrs Mac. for providing such a tasty meal and for all the extra work that goes into organising an event like this.
