Handwriters of the week

Congratulations Ralfs and L-Jay for your beautiful handwriting!

We only achieved 96.30%
attendance this week,
however, Dragons managed 100%! Let's see if Eagles can match this.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

We have started our new theme of 'Forgiveness'. We listened to the parable about the unforgiving servant from the Gospel of St. Matthew. We reflected upon what it actually means to say that we are sorry and how do we truly show someone that we are.

The Royal Wedding

Last Friday, we all came together as a school family to celebrate. Children learnt all about the members of the Royal family. The children were interested to note that many of the Royalty have military connections. Children reflected upon all the parents at this school who are in, or who have been, in the armed forces. We then had fun decorating biscuits in honour of the wedding using red, white and blue icing. We also read information about the wedding, answered some questions based on our reading and then took part in a 'Royal Wedding' quiz!

Pupil of the Week Certificates

Our Pupils of the Week are:

Joe and Veronica

Well Done!

Elijah proudly showed the school a medal and trophy that he was awarded with for all the rugby he plays out of school.

Isobel enjoyed showing us her medal that she was awarded for her dance performance at Northallerton's Forum. Keep up the good work Isobel!

*It's lovely to hear about children's out of school achievements and celebrate them as a school family.
Time, money and commitment goes into all these hobbies – let's celebrate together.
Please let Mrs Stanley know if there is something we can share on the newsletter or in assembly.*

FENCING

Thank you for your understanding whilst recent building works have been carried out regarding the additional fencing. As safeguarding is of paramount importance to the school, and as a result of a recent safeguarding audit, it was recommended that this additional fencing was added in order to make school as safe as it can be. Although it has made school look a little bit different, I'm sure we will soon get used to it! Children's welfare and safety is always at the fore-front of any decision made.

Writers of the week

Congratulations Althea, Ralfs & Max for your writing this week

Mathlete of the Week

Veronica

Well done for reaching 4109 points

Resilience

We are teaching the children different life skills. An important skill to develop is resilience. We are supporting children in becoming more resilient learners – we are encouraging them to keep on trying, even if something is a bit tricky and not to give up. We came together as a school family on Tuesday to think about what it means to be resilient and how this can impact on our learning. To help us reflect, we learnt all about a little swallow and how it has to have resilience when migrating from southern Africa to the UK each year.

30 Days Wild

As a school we have signed up to the Wild Life Trust's 30 Days Wild campaign. This starts on the 1st of June and lasts for the whole of the month. Children are challenged to do something kind for nature. It would be great if we could do one kind act per class, per day. We can then put this on Twitter. Suggested activities might include: feeding the birds or leaving a small patch of grass unmown so that creatures can hide there.

Sports Day

Sports Day will be on 5th July at 1:30.
If it has to be cancelled due to weather,
our reserve will be 6th July at 1:30.
