Handwriters of the week

Congratulations Olivia and Annabel for your beautiful handwriting!

We only achieved 89.26% attendance this week. More cases of chicken pox in Dragons! Eagles have done well though.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

We learnt all about the story of the Prodigal Son. We thought about how the father willingly forgave his son despite what he'd done and welcomed him back into the family. We thought about how the Prodigal Son would have felt going back to his father to seek his forgiveness.

St Gregory's

On Monday, Michelle and Sandra from St Gregory's Church came to work with the children. Michelle is the children's worker for the church and Sandra came along to help. These ladies spent lunchtime with the children doing a craft activity. Children all made their own lolly stick disciple and learnt about who the disciples were. It is lovely to have a link with our local church and this lunchtime craft is going to be an ongoing activity. They are coming again next Monday to do more fun activities with the children. We are very thankful for their support.

Pupil of the Week Certificates

Our Pupils of the Week are:

Caspar and Tom

Twitter

School has been tweeting interesting things that have happened recently in school and has used Twitter to celebrate success. Please follow the school @Aiskewleemingbar on Twitter. Thank you to all the grown ups who have taken the time to like and retweet recent tweets!

Green Fingers?

The plant pots in our sensory garden are looking very sad! Is there anyone who is willing to donate a few plants and/or able to come and plant up the pots. It could be a lovely Golden Time activity - a small group of children, along with one of school's adults could help you do some planting. If you think you are able to help, please contact Mrs Stanley or Mrs Bentley.

goodbye

On Thursday, we say a sad goodbye to Mrs Bashford. She is going on to work within speech therapy. This is an area of work she has been wanting to do for a long time and has been fortunate in securing a position in this field. We wish her all the best in her new career and we will really miss her. Thank you for all you've done here Mrs Bashford. Mrs Layton will start as a full time teaching assistant on Friday 6th July.

Writers of the week

Congratulations
L-Jay and Kaci
for your writing this week

Mathlete of the Week

Tyler Well done for reaching 2691 points

Mathletics - Hall of Fame

I was so excited this week to learn that Kieran had managed to get his name on the Mathletics Hall of Fame! He was 58th in the world and 48th in the UK! I was so proud that Kieran was the first student to put Aiskew, Leeming Bar CE Primary School on the Mathletics map! Don't forget, children have until midnight on Sunday to collect points for the Mathletics Summer Challenge. There are special certificates for children who have earned over 1000 points this week.

Success for Savannah

Last Sunday Savannah won 2 silver medals for her karate. She got one for doing pairs with another girl. For this, the pair had to synchronise every move together on the mat. Her second medal was for her individual performance. She had to 'battle it out' on the mat and go against 5 people! She made it to the final where she was up against a 10 year old boy! Congratulations Savannah on your success - there's no wonder all your grown ups are feeling proud of you!
