COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

We have been thinking about what harvest time means to us.

Harvest service at Leeming Garth

Today, we joined with Michelle from St Gregory's to deliver a harvest service at Leeming Garth Care Home. What a privilege to be able to take the whole school to take part in this special service and brighten up the day for the elderly.

Breakfast Club Survey

We are considering starting a breakfast club but need to know what you think first.

Golden Time

Last week in Golden Time, I took three girls out of Eagles to Leeming Bar Grange Care Home to read a story to the residents. The children had all chosen a book carefully and then they went round the residents sitting with them and reading to them. Both the elderly and the children thoroughly enjoyed themselves. I was amazed by the children's maturity and confidence.
The staff were bowled over by our children. What great ambassadors for the school. A huge well done to Georgina, Savannah and Althea. This week, so many children volunteered to go thanks to these three that I had to draw names out of a hat. This week the children who are chosen to go are going to be helping to do jigsaw puzzles.

Scarecrow Competition

We had an invasion of scarecrows on Monday morning in school!
Pictures and models of scarecrows were brought into school in all different shapes and sizes - what a lovely start to an autumnal Monday morning! Hours of work had obviously gone into making these wonderful creations. It was lovely to see the fruits of your labours from both grown-ups and children!

This is a charity that our school benefits from.
On World Mental Health

we will be holding a non-school uniform day.
The suggested minimum donation is 50p & all the money raised will go to Compass Buzz.

After putting out a plea to grown ups last week in the newsletter to have a go a blogs, I was really pleased you having a go. It is really appreciated by both staff and children. The children love it when we show them the comments made by grown ups! Don't forget to follow the school on Twitter too. Our Twitter account is @AiskewLeemingba and our Twitter feed can be found on the home page of our website. It's another great way to find out what great things have been happening during the week.

REMINDERS

Eagles – PE

This week in PE The Eagles completed their final leadership training session on how to use different types of equipment effectively. They really enjoyed playing various types of rounders and worked well as a team by supporting each other. Next week they will work in teams and try to organise some games to play at break times. As part of their unit of work on invasion games (football) the children improved their skills in passing and moving with a ball.
